

At 8⁰⁰ P.M. Dec. 1, 1963 Robert Borchardt ^{sp} called this office from 5th floor of city jail (charged with Sub. Forg. & hold for Hamilton T.D.) and ^{said he wanted to} talk to a Det. about some information about Jack Rubenstein @ Jack Ruby. I got this person out on a tempo and talked to him - he states he is in jail for Forg. & has been filled on. He states the following people are his friends and he has been talking to them in jail and on streets before he got into jail. The following are the people he got his information from:

Edric Dalrymple was 38

Lawrence Miller was.

Perry Hydel was.

Marvin Fraizer was.

He states the above four subjects work for a man named Fred - ^{unk last} name - has calling names of "Big Rango" & "The Goose".

Borchardt says this Fred works for a group out of Chicago, Ill. & that he runs stolen cars & guns to Mexico & brings narc. back in to the U.S. He says the cars, guns & other stolen items are picked up this side of the U.S. - Mexico border. Borchardt says that Jack Ruby was in ~~debt~~ to "bookies" "bookys" for $40,000 and that the debt would be canceled if he killed Lee Harvey Oswald. He also said that Perry Wydell worked as a bouncer for Jack Ruby in his clubs sometime back. Borchardt thinks that the above group is headed by this Fred is or knew who Jack Ruby is in ~~debt~~ debt too.

Borchardt is still in jail and he knows ~~he~~ he is going to the pen. - He is trying to get us to make a deal with him. I don't think he knows any thing to help us. I believe he just want us to give things so that he can get out on bond.
